QUEST, INC. RECEIVES $50,000 GRANT BENEFITING SCHOOL FOR STUDENTS WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Support From Genesis Inspiration Foundation to Enrich Art Programming

ORLANDO, Fla. (Aug. 14, 2025) – Quest, Inc. is expanding art programming at Quest Kids Academy – a school for children, teens and young adults with autism and other developmental disabilities – thanks to a $50,000 grant from the Genesis Inspiration Foundation.

The funds will support field trips as well as music and dance classes throughout the school year. This comes as Quest prepares to open its newly built home – located at 500 E. Colonial Drive – in early 2026. The innovative learning and therapy campus will be home to Quest Kids Academy and Quest Kids Therapy. Quest Kids Academy serves those ages 5-22 using the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis therapy – one of the only clinically proven methods to change behavior – in two major focus areas:

- Early Academics with an emphasis on building foundational learning and classroom readiness skills
- Life/Employment Readiness with an emphasis on developing social and vocational skills to transition into adulthood

“With 1 in 31 children being diagnosed with autism, the need for innovative learning environments has never been greater,” said John R. Gill, President and CEO at Quest, Inc. “Thanks to the Genesis Inspiration Foundation, our new home will be a place where the arts drive development – strengthening skills, unlocking potential and preparing students for greater independence.”

For more information about Quest Kids Academy, including how to apply and/or to invest in Quest, Inc.’s mission, visit QuestKids.org. Financial assistance is available through the Family Empowerment Scholarship for Unique Abilities Program.
